

JAC Technologies' transactions, distributed across the first three months of the year:

---

JAC Technologies Transactions

January

1. The owner invested ₱500,000 cash and a two-storey building valued at ₱1,500,000.
2. Purchased computers for office use on account worth ₱250,000.
3. Paid ₱8,000 for monthly internet and phone services.
4. Bought office tables and chairs worth ₱30,000, paid in cash.
5. Received ₱120,000 cash for providing network setup and software installation services.
6. Purchased a delivery truck worth ₱600,000 on account.
7. Paid ₱200,000 to a supplier for part of the account balance.

February

8. Paid ₱12,000 in advance for next month's communication services.
9. Paid ₱50,000 for employees' monthly salaries.
10. Paid ₱10,000 for repair and maintenance.
11. Accepted ₱100,000 note receivable from a client for services rendered.
12. Issued ₱200,000 note payable for the truck purchase.

March

13. Paid ₱15,000 for business permits and licenses.
  14. Used the company's delivery van worth ₱800,000 for transporting client equipment.
  15. The owner added ₱100,000 cash as additional capital.
-